Head of Financial Regulatory practice group and Sustainability Law practice group

Andreas is an asset management and sustainability specialist, and heads both the Financial Regulatory and the Sustainability Law Groups at Schjødt.

Andreas holds wide experience with establishment and structuring of all types of investment funds and structures (UCITS, AIFs, co-investments, etc.). He is one of the leading regulatory experts for the asset management industry and continuously advise asset managers on all parts of their operations.

Andreas has followed the development and focus on environmental, social and governance ("ESG") matters from the start in Norway, and has advised on all matters of the subject, inter alia, drafting and review of contract obligations, policies, ongoing supervision and ESG due diligence. He is recognized as one of the leading lawyers in Norway on sustainability/ESG and is frequently used as a speaker.

He has previously worked at the law firm BHR, and was seconded to Sector Fund Services (a fund manager of both UCITS and AIFs) where he advised on regulatory compliance matters.

Andreas is mentioned as "fund expert" by Legal 500 and a "private equity specialist" by IFLR 1000.
