

CAMILLA LINNES

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Camilla works in our dispute resolution group and advises clients in business law disputes. She is also a member of our tax group and is particularly experienced with personal and corporate taxation, and with complaints and legal proceedings against the tax authorities.

Camilla joined Schjødt in 2013. From May 2017 to January 2019 Camilla worked as a Deputy Judge in Hallingdal district court where she served as administrator in civil cases and criminal cases.

Before joining the firm, Camilla had internships in several law firms, in addition to an internship in the Financial Supervisory of Norway. While studying she was appointed as a creditor board member by Oslo City Court.

Camilla is an external examiner at the University of Bergen.
