Co-head of Industry department

Fredrik has more than 25 years of experience in public procurement, EU and competition law matters.

He represents both suppliers and the public sector in all aspects of public procurement, including the bidding phase and the contract phase. He has acted for clients in a substantial number of court cases concerning reviews, invalidity of contracts and damages in connection with public procurement. Fredrik also has extensive experience in EU and competition law matters, including merger control, abuse of dominant position, cartels and state aid.

Prior to joining Schjødt, he was a partner in Hamilton for more than 15 years and he also has work experience from EY (Ernst & Young Law), the law firm Cederquist and the European Commission (Directorate General for Competition). He regularly represents clients in a number of different sectors, including medtech, healthcare, telecommunications, construction and transport.

Since many years, Fredrik is top ranked within public procurement in Sweden by Chambers Europe (Band 1) and Legal 500 (Leading Individual). He is also ranked as a leading lawyer in Who's Who Legal Government Contracts. He has published numerous articles on public procurement (see examples below) and he is a frequent speaker at procurement conferences and seminars.
