

Jenny Jilmstad
Partner, Stockholm

jenny.jilmstad@schjodt.com

M: +46 70 184 02 69

T: +46 8 505 501 08

Jenny is specialised in employment law and provides traditional and strategic advice to Swedish and international clients on matters such as employment terminations, company acquisitions, in- and outsourcing, establishments, restructurings, lawyer investigations, trade secrets, privacy, compensation and benefits and managerial issues. Jenny also has experience from dispute resolution in employment litigation cases. She is engaged as a lecturer by private education providers and clients.

Jenny is ranked as a leading lawyer within employment in Chambers and Partners.

Languages: Swedish and English

---

Practice areas

---

- Employment & Pension

---

About Jenny

---

Experience

Partner in charge of an insourcing deal in the food industry.

Partner in charge of several significant #metoo investigations

Partner in charge of several cases regarding claims for collective bargaining agreements

Partner in charge of several cases regarding trade secrets and employee loyalty

Provides daily employment advice to several international and Swedish clients

Rankings

2021 Recommended - Legal 500

2020 Recommended - Legal 500

2020 Leading Individual - Chambers and Partners Europe

2018 Jenny Jilmstad has a broad remit, embracing employment-related privacy compliance, investigations, transfers of undertakings, out/insourcing projects, trade union negotiations and disputes over terminations, plus more transactional mandates for a clientele operating in sectors ranging from healthcare to insurance. She attracts praise from one source for her ability to guide clients "in an open-minded way, making you feel secure in the process", Chambers Europe

Education

1997 Jur. kand. University of Stockholm