Kenneth is a part of the firm's M&A department, and works primarily with mergers and acquisitions. He has experience from both private M&A transactions and equity capital market transactions. Prior to joining Schjødt, Kenneth worked in Wiersholm, where he mainly focused on M&A and regulatory matters in the energy sector (renewable energy and oil and gas). During his time in Wiersholm, Kenneth had an 11 month secondment in Equinor ASA, where he acted as in-house legal advisor. In Equinor, Kenneth advised on all aspects of petroleum law, supported contract negotiations and licence transaction matters.

Kenneth holds a Master's degree in law from the University of Oslo. During his studies, Kenneth had internships at Arntzen de Besche, Selmer, Wiersholm and the Ministry of Finance.
