T: +47 23 01 19 70

Marie primarily works with employment and pension law, assisting clients with a wide range of questions, such as the managerial prerogative, working time, information and consultation obligations, occupational injury insurance and contractual pension schemes (AFP").

Marie is regularly involved in several processes related to transfer of undertakings, reorganizations, redundancies and termination of employments. She also has experience with questions regarding ownership to and transfer of intellectual property rights related to employment, and is specialised in intellectual property rights as part of her law degree.

During her time in Schjødt, Marie has been seconded to Posten Norge AS for four months. During this time, she gave assistance within several areas of law, such as commercial contracts, revision and drafting of compliance policies within the Posten-group, including the ethical guidelines, and assistance within employment law.

During her studies, Marie was an intern in Borgarting Court of Appeal, as well as in Schjødt and Leiros & Olsen. She received a scholarship from Schjødt and from the Norwegian Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property Rights (NIR) for her master thesis, where the theme was patent infringement.
