Marthe is on leave of absence.

Marthe works in our Construction Law team. She joined Schjødt in 2012 and works with advice, contract formulation, negotiation and dispute resolution, primarily in construction related matters, but also in other contractual relationships. She regularly litigates matters for Norwegian courts and at arbitration.

Marthe holds a master's degree in law from the University of Oslo, specialising in individual labor law. During her studies, she worked for a year as a lawyer at Juss-Bus, with debt and family law as her specialist field. From August 2015 to January 2017, Marthe was a deputy judge at Sør-Østerdal District Court, where she served as administrator in civil cases, criminal cases and matters of judgment. As a deputy judge, she also mediated in several civil disputes.
