Sjur primarily works with Oil & Gas, but is also affiliated with Schjødt's department for Dispute resolution.

He holds a Master of Law from the University of Bergen, where he followed elective courses in tax and company law, and specialised in the procedural rules that govern the Norwegian arbitration process. The latter resulted in a thesis about the duty to disclose documents and provide evidence in arbitration proceedings. For this thesis, Sjur received the Schjødt scholarship during the spring of 2018.

In addition to this I also hold a Certificate from Queen Mary University of London, where I spent five month studying banking and finance.

Practice areas

- Dispute Resolution
